Some Media Appearances

The past month was a good one for the Maltese Militia getting onto the web and into print. Our friends at Paintball News printed an article from the September issue on the Hatfield's Vs. McCoy's event at Fox 4 and a Custom Prize Package winner press release. They provide some of the best coverage of paintball and are always looking for input from the teams and players of the sport. You can check them out online at <http://paintballnews.com>

Upcoming Big Events

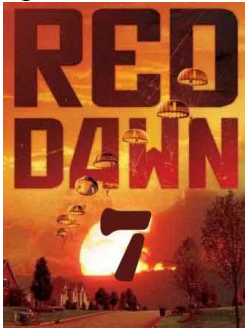

For this month we have a three big events:

On October 4th, we will all head down to the south shore to P&L Paintball for the "Take the Town 3" Event. Once again we will be attacking and will be running along side of Pub Crawling for a change. If this is half as good as the first 2, it will be a great day of paintball.

On October 19th is our home fields premier event Red Dawn 7. Based on the movie of the same name this is always a "don't miss" event. Not sure what side we will be playing on just yet.

Finally, we will be heading down to Strategy Plus for the Halloween Horror event: Darken Days. In keeping with the Halloween theme, this year will be a vampire game.

All of these games are at top of the line fields and should be some of the best paintball in 2008.

Castle Conquest

Once again the Maltese Militia will be visiting one of the premier fields in the northeast as we attend the fall version of Castle Conquest on September 27th. Watch the next issue of Splatter for full coverage. Having defended the last several games, we are changing it up and attacking this fall. We will also be giving away two of our custom prize packages after the game on Saturday. Check out all the details at www.emrpaintball.com
